Report on Group Discussion

Date: 09/03/2026

Topic: Barriers of Communication

Place: Venutai Chavan College, Karad

Subject Teacher: Mrs. M.K.Khatib

Introduction

A group discussion on the topic 'Barriers of Communication' was conducted at Venutai Chavan College, Karad on 9th March 2026. The purpose of this discussion was to help students understand the different obstacles that affect effective communication and how they can be overcome.

Details of the Discussion

The discussion began with an introduction to communication and its importance in daily life. Participants actively shared their ideas and experiences related to communication barriers. Each member contributed their views confidently and respectfully.

Various types of communication barriers were discussed, such as:

- Physical Barriers: Noise, distance, and poor infrastructure.
- Language Barriers: Differences in language and misunderstanding of words.
- Psychological Barriers: Stress, emotions, and lack of confidence.
- Cultural Barriers: Differences in beliefs, values, and traditions.
- Organizational Barriers: Improper channels of communication and lack of clarity.

Key Points Discussed

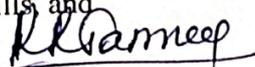

Participants explained that barriers can lead to misunderstandings, confusion, and conflicts. They also suggested remedies like active listening, clear speaking, proper use of language, and maintaining a positive attitude to overcome these barriers.

Participation

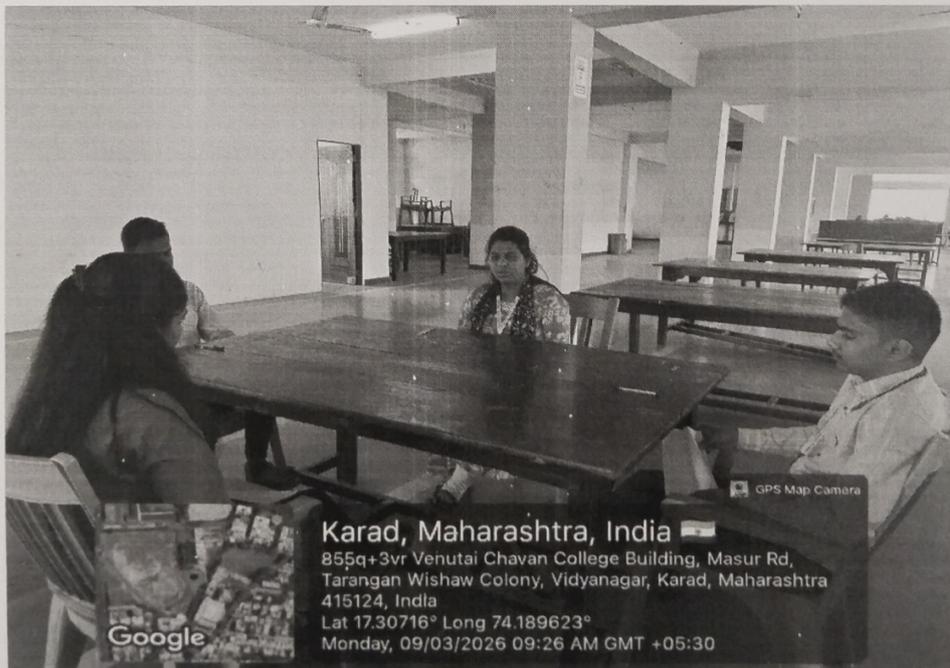

All group members actively participated in the discussion. They listened carefully to each other, respected different opinions, and maintained discipline throughout the session.

Conclusion

The group discussion was informative and helped everyone gain a better understanding of communication barriers. It also improved participants' confidence, speaking skills, and teamwork. Overall, the session was successful and beneficial for all.
